

Continuing Legal Education – Quick Tips

CLE Events 2023 Compilation

- List at December 3, 2023 with links to available recordings up until December 3, 2023.

Active Members for the entire 2023 membership year

Must complete 12 hours of eligible CLE which include:

- mandatory one hour devoted to professional responsibility and ethics; and
- mandatory one hour devoted to cultural competency.

Please limit your reporting to 12 hours.

Active Members with less than 12 months of membership

Must complete one hour of eligible CLE for each full or partial calendar month during which the member was engaged in the practice of law in Nunavut (i.e., active status).

A member is not required to complete the two mandatory CLE hours on Professional Responsibility & Ethics and Cultural Competency for the calendar year in which they were a practicing member for less than 12 months.

Comparable CLE requirements in another jurisdiction

A member is not required to undertake additional CLE activities they have completed for another jurisdiction, as long as they have one hour devoted to professional responsibility & ethics and one hour devoted to cultural competency.

A member must report the comparable CLE activities completed in another jurisdiction in their online CLE Report (as part of their membership renewal application).

Exemptions

A member is not required to complete CLE activities during a calendar year, if during that year they:

- completed a bar admission program and were admitted to the Law Society of Nunavut during the calendar year;
- were inactive for the entire 12 months of the calendar year; and/or
- were on leave or unable to practise because of illness or for any other reason acceptable to the Executive, for the entire 12 months of the calendar year.

Please check the appropriate statement in the designated portion of the online CLE Report.