

Remember - under the LSN's Continuing Legal Education (CLE) policy, members may claim up to 2 hours of self-study / on-demand CLE. This list includes archived CLE recordings, books, and podcasts that you may wish to partake of at your own pace to complement our live CLE offerings and further your professional development during the winter months. Here are some suggestions of continuing education resources to curl up with!

Below are five recent CLE sessions (from LSN or available via its channels) that are highly relevant to practice, ethics, wellness, and professional adaptation. Members should confirm with LSN staff that each session is eligible in the year claimed.

- ## Recent Canadian Law Books

Here are three relatively recent or newly relevant titles to include in your winter acquisitions or reading lists. Each is given in McGill Guide–style citation where possible.
