LAW SOCIETY OF NUNAVUT

Instructions for Renewing a Restricted Appearance Certificate

Pursuant to ss. 49 (5) of the Rules of the Law Society of Nunavut, in order to renew your certificate, you need to submit:

- (a) A certificate from each provincial or territorial law society or comparable body of which the applicant is a member dated not earlier than 30 days prior to the presentation of the application
- (b) Form F Statutory Declaration must be submitted if you are not maintaining a trust account in the Nunavut jurisdiction¹
- (c) A completed Insurance Exemption Certificate and Undertaking or payment of the insurance levy (« Professional Liability Insurance»)
- (d) A copy of the Restricted Appearance Certificate that is to be renewed
- (e) A signed authorization
- (f) Applicable fees

Once the paperwork has been processed, a new certificate will be issued to you and the Court.

Please note that this Society requires at least 10 working days in order to process the forms so we recommend that you apply early enough so that there will be no interruption in your ability to continue to practice law including to appear in a Nunavut Court of Justice.

If your Restricted Appearance Certificate does expire before you apply for a renewal, you will be required to resubmit a full Restricted Appearance Certificate application.

¹ TRUST ACCOUNT: If you submitted a statutory declaration with your original RAC Application, you are bound by it and you must notify this office if you open a trust account in Nunavut.
