NUNAVUMI MALIGALIUQTIT
NUNAVUT LAW FOUNDATION
LA FONDATION DU DROIT DU NUNAVUT

November 9, 2022

The Nunavut Law Foundation is looking for a lay member of the public to fill a vacant position on its Board.

The Law Foundation is a non-profit foundation created by the Legal Profession Act to manage a fund to support law-related projects and initiatives in Nunavut; and award grants and scholarships through its General Grant, Lucien Ukaliannuk and Upinnaqtuq Awards.

The Law Foundation is governed by a five-member Board of Directors, with four lawyers and one member of the public. The Directors meet several times a year, either in person or remotely.

The public member will contribute to the work of the Law Foundation by expressing community concerns, sharing their knowledge and insight, and ensuring that decisions reflect the views of the general public, including Inuit societal values.

Anyone who is concerned about public legal education, access to justice or the administration of justice in the community is encouraged to apply.

If you're interested in the position, please send a cover letter and resume with the subject line "NLF Public Representative" to support@lawsociety.nu.ca by December 5, 2022, or by mail or fax at:
